Subject: Model Selection Delay Blog & Webinar Announcement Published / Webpage Updated

Greetings,

The ICANN organization will hold a webinar on 2 February 2018 from 15:30 to 16:30 UTC to provide an update on data protection/privacy activities related to the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

The webinar will focus on ICANN's three proposed interim models for collecting registration data and implementing registration directory services published earlier this month. We aim to ensure all community members have the same opportunity to engage and encourage you to attend and share your views.
